

Study Printing for FREE at Glasgow UK

NIPA Educational Trust decided to offer up to two scholarships in every batch going for the Specialist Short Course for Print Professionals at Glasgow, Scotland UK. No tuition fees will be charged from up to two deserving students based on merit, academic and/or professional achievements and/or financial backgrounds to be decided by an impartial panel of five eminent persons. For the sake of complete transparency, no representative from the Trust is included in this panel. The members of panel are President of AIFMP, President of IPAMA, President of NIPA, Mr. Viren Chhabra and Mr. S K Khurana, Editor Print Publishing.

Any one who thinks that based on his/her academic or professional achievements and/or financial backgrounds the scholarship granted to him/her would help in the development of printing industry of India can apply for these scholarships. Print Professionals interested to apply for the scholarship will have to get themselves registered in that particular batch after following the prescribed procedure laid down for other students. Only students registered in the batch can apply for the scholarships to be provided in that particular batch. Decision of the panel will be final and binding and no correspondence will be entertained on this subject. Candidates can be called for interview, if necessary; however, no TA/DA will be paid for attending such interview.
